Notes on Nomination Paper

(References in parentheses are to the provisions of the Electoral Act 1992, as amended by the Electoral (Amendment) Act 2007, unless otherwise stated).

1. Nomination

A candidate may nominate himself or herself or may, with the candidate's consent, be nominated by a proposer. A proposer must be registered as a Dáil elector in the constituency for which he or she proposes to nominate the candidate (section 46).

2. Candidate Nomination Procedures

A nomination paper from a candidate of a registered political party must have a certificate of political affiliation attached (see paragraph 3 below).

If no certificate is attached, one or other of the following procedures must be complied with before the expiration of the time for receiving nominations—

- (i) the completion of statutory declarations by 30 assentors registered as Dáil electors in the relevant constituency which must be witnessed by a Commissioner for Oaths, a Peace Commissioner, a Notary Public, a member of the Garda Síochána or an official of the registration authority, or

- (ii) the candidate, or someone on his or her behalf, lodging a deposit of €500 with the returning officer.

Under the assentors option, the relevant forms for the making of statutory declarations are available from returning officers and registration authorities. The relevant details of the assentors must be included on the statutory declarations — number (and polling district letters) on the register of Dáil electors in force at the time of assent, address on the register, contact details, the relevant Dáil constituency on the date of assent where he/she is registered, the name and address of the candidate, and the form of prescribed photographic ID produced and any identifying number on it.

Each assentor MUST when making the statutory declaration bring one of the following photographic documents for identification purposes — passport, driving licence, employee identity card containing a photograph, student identity card issued by an educational institution and containing a photograph, bank card with a photograph, or a travel document containing name and photograph. One of the documents MUST be produced to the person taking the statutory declaration.

An assent is valid in respect of the constituency in which the assentor's address at the time of assent is located at election time. The assent may be made at any time but it may only be used at the next general or bye-election in the relevant constituency and it expires when the register current when the statutory declaration was made ceases to be in force, notwithstanding that no such election may have been held by then.

Responsibility lies with the candidate or proposer to secure the necessary assents, to attach the 30 statutory declarations to the nomination paper and to deliver all the documentation to the returning officer by the deadline for receipt of nominations.

An assentor must confirm on the statutory declaration that he or she has not assented to the nomination of any other candidate in the election concerned. Under the Statutory Declarations Act 1938, a person who knowingly makes a false or misleading statutory declaration in any material respect is liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding €2,539 or imprisonment for a term not exceeding 6 months or both. However, a candidate's nomination will not be invalid where a person assents to the nomination of more than one candidate.

Under the deposits option, a candidate may choose the alternative of making a deposit and, if he or she does not do so and has not opted to secure 30 assents, their candidature will be deemed to have been withdrawn. A candidate, or someone on his or her behalf, may lodge a deposit of €500 with the returning officer before the expiration of the time for receiving nominations. The deposit may be made by means of legal tender or, with the consent of the returning officer, in any other manner. The deposit will be returned in the case of successful candidates, those receiving votes in excess of a quarter of the quota and in certain other circumstances: not being validly nominated, withdrawal of candidature or death. Otherwise, the deposit will be forfeited. (Where the deposit is to be returned, it will be returned to the person making it and the name and address of that person should be entered at 3 on the nomination paper).

All relevant parts of the nomination paper must be completed by all candidates (sections 46, 47 and 48).

3. Certificate of Political Affiliation

- (a) If a candidate represents a registered political party, a completed certificate of political affiliation must be lodged with the nomination paper and the name of the party inserted in the appropriate column at 2 of the nomination paper.
- (b) If the candidate does not represent a registered political party, the column may be left blank or the words "Non-Party" may be entered in it (section 46).

4. Candidate's Photograph

If a candidate wishes to have his or her photograph included on the ballot paper, they must provide with the nomination paper—

- A photograph in digitised format (Jpeg) on a CD (passport size — 35mm x 45mm); AND
- Two identical printed copies of the photograph.

The photograph must be taken not more than 12 months prior to polling day and must be of good quality, in colour and taken to a professional standard, showing the candidate's full face, head and shoulders only, on a light background (any colour).

Each printed copy of the photograph must have the candidate's name clearly shown on the back.

If the above requirements are not complied with, the returning officer may not include the photograph on the ballot paper. In these circumstances, or if no photograph is supplied, the space for the candidate's photograph will be left blank on the ballot paper.

THE ONUS IS ON THE CANDIDATE TO MEET THESE REQUIREMENTS.

5. Delivery of Nomination Paper

The completed nomination paper must be delivered to the returning officer in person by the candidate or proposer within the period fixed for the receipt of nominations (ending at 12 noon on the last day for receiving nominations). (sections 49 and 50).

6. Ruling on Nomination Paper

The returning officer will rule on the validity of the nomination paper within one hour of its delivery to him/her and may rule that it is invalid if he/she considers that it is not properly made out or signed. A returning officer may also rule as invalid a nomination paper from a candidate without a certificate of political affiliation who has opted for the assenting alternative referred to in paragraph 2 above if he or she considers that the candidate has not complied with the statutory requirements relating to assenting.

The returning officer is required to object to the candidate's name if it—

- (a) is not the name by which the candidate is commonly known, or
- (b) is misleading and likely to cause confusion, or
- (c) is unduly long, or

(d) contains a political reference.

The returning officer is also required to object to a candidate's description if it is, in his or her opinion, incorrect, insufficient to identify the candidate or unnecessarily long or which contains a political reference other than, where appropriate, a reference to a public or elected office held, or formerly held, by the candidate or an entry in the nomination paper referred to at paragraph 3(a) or (b) above.

The ruling on the nomination paper may be attended by the candidate and proposer (if any), one other person designated by the candidate (or his/her proposer) and any other person authorised by the returning officer (section 52).

7. Eligibility for Election to Dáil Éireann

A person who—

- (a) is not a citizen of Ireland, or
- (b) has not reached the age of 21 years on polling day, or
- (c) is a member of the Commission of the European Communities, or
- (d) is a Judge, Advocate General or Registrar of the Court of Justice of the European Communities, or
- (e) is a member of the Court of Auditors of the European Communities, or
- (f) is a member of the Garda Síochána, or
- (g) is a wholetime member of the Defence Forces, or
- (h) is a civil servant who is not by the terms of his or her employment expressly permitted to be a member of the Dáil, or
- (i) is a person of unsound mind, or
- (j) is undergoing a sentence of imprisonment for any term exceeding 6 months imposed by a court of competent jurisdiction in the State, or
- (k) is an undischarged bankrupt under an adjudication by a court of competent jurisdiction in the State, is not eligible for election (section 41; section 15 of the Electoral (Amendment) Act 2001).

8. Withdrawal of Nomination

A candidate may withdraw his/her nomination up to 12 noon on the day (disregarding any excluded day) after the latest date for receiving nominations.

The notice of withdrawal to the returning officer must be signed by the candidate and delivered in person by the candidate or proposer. Where the returning officer is satisfied that a candidate wishes to withdraw and that neither the candidate nor the proposer can attend in person, the returning officer will accept a notice of withdrawal, signed by the candidate and by the person delivering it, which is received by the latest time for withdrawal (section 54).

9. Appointment of Election Agent

Each candidate must appoint an election agent before incurring any expenses at an election. The main function of the election agent is to authorise and control spending connected to the candidate's election campaign and to assist the candidate generally in relation to the election. The candidate must, not later than the last day for receiving nominations at the election, supply the name and office address of the election agent in writing to the returning officer for the constituency in which the candidate is standing. (If a person is standing as a candidate in more than one constituency, he or she must supply the information to the returning officer for each of the constituencies). The returning officer will subsequently supply the details to the Standards in Public Office Commission. Further information on the role of an election agent is contained in the Commission's guidelines (section 28 of the Electoral Act 1997; section 50 (j) of the Electoral (Amendment) Act 2001).

10. Penalties

There are penalties for—

- (a) producing a forged—
 - (i) nomination paper, or
 - (ii) certificate of political affiliation
 to the returning officer (sections 138 and 142),
- (b) without the consent of the person concerned—
 - (i) nominating such person as a candidate, or
 - (ii) withdrawing the candidature of such person (section 141),
- (c) making a false declaration with respect to the eligibility of a candidate for election (section 143).

Penalties under the Statutory Declarations Act 1938 in respect of knowingly making a false or misleading statutory declaration are set out at paragraph 2 above.
