(14C) Where an employing authority has provided the information in accordance with paragraph (14B) and there is then a change to any of the information provided, that employing authority must, within 1 month of the change, provide the Department with the revised information.”.

Part 4

Miscellaneous

Option to persons detrimentally affected by these Regulations

21. (1) This regulation applies in relation to any benefit which is being paid or may become payable under the regulations amended by these Regulations to or in respect of a person who, having served in an employment or office, service in which qualified the person to participate in the benefits provided under the regulations amended by these Regulations, ceased to serve therein before these Regulations came into operation.

(2) Where, in a case to which this regulation applies, any provision of these Regulations would operate in relation to any person so as to place that person in a worse position than that person would have been if that provision had not applied, that person may elect that the provision shall not apply by giving notice in accordance with paragraph (3).

(3) A notice given pursuant to paragraph (2) shall be in writing and shall be delivered to the Department within six months of the coming into operation of these Regulations or such longer period as the Department may allow.

(4) An election pursuant to paragraph (2) shall have effect in relation to the benefit referred to in paragraph (1) only to the extent that such benefit has accrued by virtue of periods of service rendered prior to the cessation referred to in paragraph (1) (or, if there has been more than one such cessation, the last of them before the coming into operation of these Regulations) and in determining entitlement to, and the amount of, the benefit to that extent, such person shall be treated as if that person had never recommenced service at any time after that cessation (or, as the case may be, the last such cessation).

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

These Regulations further amend the Health and Personal Social Services (Superannuation) Regulations (Northern Ireland) 1995 (S.R. 1995 No.95) (“the 1995 Regulations”) and the Health and Social Care (Pension Scheme) Regulations (Northern Ireland) 2008 (S.R. 2008 No.256) (“the 2008 Regulations”).

Regulation 1 provides for citation, commencement and effect, including that certain provisions of this rule are to take effect from a date before the date of commencement. Article 14(1) of the Superannuation (Northern Ireland) Order 1972 provides the authority for the regulations specified in regulation 1(3) and (4) to take effect as from a date earlier than the making of these Regulations.

The remainder of the Regulations are divided into three Parts, with Parts 2 and 3 amending the 1995 Regulations and the 2008 regulations respectively, and Part 4 providing that certain persons detrimentally affected by these Regulations may elect for the provisions not to apply to them.

Regulations 5, 14 and 20 require the Department and employing authorities to keep accounts and records and make them available for inspection and clarify their obligations in relation to pension record keeping.

Regulations 4 and 9 amend the provisions governing the deduction of tax.

Regulation 8 provides for the Scheme actuary to undertake a valuation of the Scheme as at 31 March 2012, and to take account of any Department of Finance and Personnel directions given pursuant to sections 11(2) and 12(3) of the Public Service Pensions (Northern Ireland) Act 2014 where the valuation is to be used for the purposes of setting the employer cost cap for a proposed new scheme made under section 1 of that Act. This valuation applies in respect of both the Section of the scheme governed by the 1995 Regulations and the 2008 Regulations.

Regulation 6 clarifies responsibility for payment of employer contributions in circumstances where a principal medical practitioner or non-GP provider is a shareholder or partner in more than one employing authority.

Regulation 21 provides for deferred members, or members in receipt of a relevant benefit, who are detrimentally affected by these Regulations to elect for the provisions not to apply to them by giving notice within six months of the coming into operation of these Regulations.
