but any such person may submit to them any evidence or other matter in writing before the close of the inquiry.

(11) The inspector or planning appeals commission may allow a person to alter or add to a statement of case served on them under rule 6 so far as may be necessary for the purposes of the inquiry; but they shall (if necessary by adjourning the inquiry) give every other person entitled to appear who is appearing at the inquiry an adequate opportunity of considering any fresh matter or document.

(12) The inspector or planning appeals commission may proceed with an inquiry in the absence of any person entitled to appear at it.

(13) The inspector or planning appeals commission may take into account any written representation or evidence or any other document served on them by any person before an inquiry opens or during the inquiry provided that they disclose it at the inquiry.

(14) The inspector or planning appeals commission may from time to time adjourn an inquiry and, if the date, time and place of the adjourned inquiry are announced at the inquiry before the adjournment, no further notice shall be required.

(3) Subject to paragraph (4), during an inquiry or after its close, the inspector or planning appeals commission—

- (a) may inspect the land in the company of the applicant, the Department and each statutory party; and
- (b) shall make such an inspection if so requested by the applicant or the Department before or during an inquiry.

Procedure after inquiry

15.—(1) After the close of an inquiry the inspector or planning appeals commission shall make a report in writing to the Department. This report shall include their conclusions and their recommendations or their reasons for not making any recommendations.

(2) Where closed evidence was considered at the inquiry, the inspector or planning appeals commission shall set out in a separate part (“the closed part”) of their report any description of that evidence together with any conclusions, recommendations or advice in relation to that evidence.

and is for that reason disposed to disagree with a recommendation made by the inspector or planning appeals commission, it shall not come to a decision which is at variance with the recommendation without first notifying a person entitled to appear at the inquiry who appeared at it of its disagreement and the reasons for it; and affording him or her an opportunity of making representations to it or (if it has taken into consideration any new evidence or new matter of fact, not being a matter of government policy) of asking for the re-opening of the inquiry.

(5) Where the Department differs from the inspector or planning appeals commission on any matter of fact mentioned in, or appearing to it to be material to, a conclusion reached by the inspector or planning appeals commission in relation to a matter in respect of which closed evidence has been given, the notification referred to in paragraph (4) shall include the reasons for the Department’s disagreement unless—

- (a) the notification is addressed to a person who is neither the appointed representative nor a person specified, or of a description specified, in the direction; and
- (b) inclusion of the reasons would disclose any part of the closed evidence.

(7) The Department may, as it thinks fit, cause an inquiry to be reopened, and it shall do so if asked by a person notified under paragraph (4) and within the period mentioned in paragraph (6); and where an inquiry is re-opened (whether by the same or a different inspector or by the planning appeals commission)—

- (a) the inspector or planning appeals commission shall send to the persons entitled to appear at the inquiry who appeared at it a written statement of the matters with respect to which further evidence is invited; and

- (a) the appointed representative; or
 - (b) a person specified, or of any description specified, in the direction.
- (4) Subject to paragraph (5), where a copy of the inspector’s or planning appeal commission’s report is not sent with the notification of the decision, the notification shall be accompanied by a statement of their conclusion and of any recommendation made by them, and if a person entitled to be notified of the decision has not received a copy of that report, he shall be supplied with a copy of it on written application to the Department.
- (5) Nothing in paragraph (4) requires the disclosure of the closed part of the inspector’s or planning appeal commission’s report referred to in rule 15(2) to a person other than—
- (a) the appointed representative; or
 - (b) a person specified, or of any description specified, in the direction.
- (6) In this rule “report” does not include any other documents so appended; but a person who has received a copy of the report may apply to the Department in writing, within 6 weeks of the date of the Department’s decision, for an opportunity of inspecting any such documents and the Department shall afford the person that opportunity.
- (7) For the purposes of paragraph (6) an opportunity shall be taken to have been afforded to a person where that person is notified of—
- (a) publication of the relevant documents on a website;
 - (b) the address of the website;
 - (c) the place on the website where the documents may be accessed, and how they may be accessed.
- (8) A person applying to the Department under paragraph (4) shall ensure that his application is served on the Department within 4 weeks of its determination.
