

1742. June 10. Mrs. FENTON against ANN FINLAY.

No. 3.

AN apprentice marrying does not void the indenture, or forfeit the penalty, or incur damages, if the apprentice be willing to perform the service. This in effect found in this case.

---

1742. June 25. WRIGHT against ENSIGN LUMSDEAN.

No. 4.

APPRENTICES cannot be enlisted. See SOLDIER.

See NOTES.