

EMPLOYMENT TRIBUNALS

Claimant: Mr B Polloni

Respondent: Leo's Bar and Grill Ltd

HELD AT: Manchester (in person) ON: 19 January 2023

BEFORE: Employment Judge L Cowen (sitting alone)

REPRESENTATION:

Claimant: In person

Respondent: Mr G Bal (Director)

JUDGMENT

1. The claimant's claim was originally brought against Mr Bal personally. Having heard from the Claimant and Mr Bal, and considered the evidence submitted by both parties, I determined that the correct Respondent was Leo's Bar and Grill Ltd. Having heard from Mr Bal and Mr Polloni regarding the substitution of Leo's Bar and Grill Ltd as the Respondent in this case, I determined that it was in the interests of justice to substitute Leo's Bar and Grill Ltd as the Respondent in this case, and so substituted Leo's Bar and Grill Ltd as the Respondent pursuant to Rule 34 of the Employment Tribunals Rules of Procedure 2013.
2. Having explained to the parties at the hearing that I would be checking my calculations after the hearing, I have of my own initiative reconsidered the remedy matter, which has led to a change to the amount awarded.
3. The respondent has made an unlawful deduction from the claimant's wages and is ordered to pay to the claimant the gross sum of £1545.00 in respect of the amount unlawfully deducted.

Notes

1. Reasons for the judgment having been given orally at the hearing, written reasons will not be provided unless a request was made by either party at the hearing or a written request is presented by either party within 14 days of the sending of this written record of the decision.
2. Judgments and reasons for the judgments are published, in full, online at www.gov.uk/employment-tribunal-decisions shortly after a copy has been sent to the claimant(s) and respondent(s) in a case.

NOTICE

THE EMPLOYMENT TRIBUNALS (INTEREST) ORDER 1990 ARTICLE 12

Case number: 2406118/2022

Name of case: Mr B Polloni v Leo's Bar and Grill Ltd

Interest is payable when an Employment Tribunal makes an award or determination requiring one party to proceedings to pay a sum of money to another party, apart from sums representing costs or expenses.

No interest is payable if the sum is paid in full within 14 days after the date the Tribunal sent the written record of the decision to the parties. The date the Tribunal sent the written record of the decision to the parties is called the relevant decision day.

Interest starts to accrue from the day immediately after the relevant decision day. That is called the calculation day.

The rate of interest payable is the rate specified in section 17 of the Judgments Act 1838 on the relevant decision day. This is known as the stipulated rate of interest.

The Secretary of the Tribunal is required to give you notice of the relevant decision day, the calculation day, and the stipulated rate of interest in your case. They are as follows:

the relevant decision day in this case is: 16 February 2023

the calculation day in this case is: 17 February 2023

the stipulated rate of interest is: 8% per annum.

GUIDANCE NOTE

1. There is more information about Tribunal judgments here, which you should read with this guidance note:

www.gov.uk/government/publications/employment-tribunal-hearings-judgment-guide-t426

If you do not have access to the internet, you can ask for a paper copy by telephoning the Tribunal office dealing with the claim.

2. The payment of interest on Employment Tribunal awards is governed by The Employment Tribunals (Interest) Order 1990. Interest is payable on Employment Tribunal awards if they remain wholly or partly unpaid more than 14 days after the relevant decision day. Sums in the award that represent costs or expenses are excluded. Interest starts to accrue from the day immediately after the relevant decision day, which is called the calculation day.
3. The date of the relevant decision day in your case is set out in the Notice. If the judgment is paid in full by that date, no interest will be payable. If the judgment is not paid in full by that date, interest will start to accrue from the next day.
4. Requesting written reasons after you have received a written judgment does not change the date of the relevant decision day.
5. Interest will be calculated as simple interest accruing from day to day on any part of the sum of money awarded by the Tribunal that remains unpaid.
6. If the person paying the Tribunal award is required to pay part of it to a public authority by way of tax or National Insurance, no interest is payable on that part.
7. If the Secretary of State has claimed any part of the sum awarded by the Tribunal in a recoupment notice, no interest is payable on that part.
8. If the sum awarded is varied, either because the Tribunal reconsiders its own judgment, or following an appeal to the Employment Appeal Tribunal or a higher court, interest will still be payable from the calculation day but it will be payable on the new sum not the sum originally awarded.
9. The online information explains how Employment Tribunal awards are enforced. The interest element of an award is enforced in the same way.
