

Privy Council Appeal No. 8 of 1988

The New Zealand Meat Industry
Association and Others

Appellants

v.

The Accident Compensation Corporation

Respondent

FROM

THE COURT OF APPEAL OF NEW ZEALAND

ORAL JUDGMENT OF THE LORDS OF THE JUDICIAL COMMITTEE
OF THE PRIVY COUNCIL, DELIVERED THE 4TH MAY 1988

Present at the Hearing:

LORD KEITH OF KINKEL
LORD ROSKILL
LORD BRANDON OF OAKBROOK
LORD BRIGHTMAN
LORD GRIFFITHS

[Delivered by Lord Keith of Kinkel]

Mr. Barton and Mr. Millard have presented the appellants' case with great skill and clarity. Their Lordships, however, have not been persuaded that there is any doubt about the correctness of the decision of the Court of Appeal. The reasons for that decision contained in the judgment of the learned President Sir Robin Cooke are, in their Lordships' opinion, entirely apt to support it, and no useful purpose would be served by their Lordships attempting to reproduce these reasons in their own words.

Their Lordships will therefore humbly advise Her Majesty that the appeal should be dismissed. The appellants must pay the respondent's costs.
